Lantern Lecture

A most interesting lecture on the Boer War was given in the Methodist church on Monday evening by the Rev J H Munton. Pictures of the leading scenes in the campaign and prominent generals, were shown on the screen and true stories of bravery on the field of battle were related by the lecturer who, having been an Army Chaplain had come into touch with many of the officers and men engaged in actual service. The lecturer said if Great Britain and America would stand together they could defy the world. He paid a loving tribute to the Canadian boys who so willingly gave up their lives at duties call. The lecture was most instructive and the pictures were good. During the evening musical selections were rendered by Mrs Davies, Mrs Keith and Mr Colwell, also Gramophone selections by Mr Perrin. There was a large attendance and a good collection. Rev Davies moved a vote of thanks to the lecturer and artistes. Miss Jessie Sheinfeld presided at the organ.

Mrs. R. E. Sanford, Inverary, Ont., writes: "My baby was sick for over a week with bowel and stomach trouble and cried night and day. Nothing I did helped her in the least till I began giving her Baby's Own Tablets. They helped baby right away and now she is a big healthy child with fine rosy cheeks. The Tablets are certainly a wonderful medicine and I recommend them to all my friends who have children in the house."

What Baby's Own Tablets have done for Mrs. Sanford's baby they do for thousands of other little ones, simply because they go to the root of so many childhood ailments—that is, they drive all impurities from the stomach and leave it sweet and healthy. She Knew It Was a Beauty

An officious shopman was showing a lady some parasols. He had a wonderful flow of language, and was ever ready to elaborate on the rare quality of the goods he was showing.

As he picked up a parasol from the counter and opened it, he held it up before the customer and, surveying it with admiring glances, said:

"Now, there you are. Isn't it lovely? Observe the quality and finish of the silk. Look at the general effect. Pass your hand over the silk, and notice how smooth and nice," and he gave it to the lady. "Really, now," he continued, "don't you think it's a beauty?"

"Yes," said the lady. "That's my old one; I laid it on the counter here."

Pains about Heart Splitting Headaches

Caused much suffering and alarm—But all is well now since using DR. CHASE'S NERVE FOOD

Nearly everybody gets serious when the heart is affected.

Headache often tells of just as great danger, but headache is so common that it often fails as an alarm signal.

You are never in greater danger than when the nervous system becomes exhausted. For there is then every reason to look forward to some form of paralysis and consequent helplessness of mind or body.

Sleeplessness, headaches, indigestion, irritability, nervousness, loss of interest in things about you and inability to concentrate the mind are some of the symptoms of approaching nervous collapse.

Let the writer of this letter tell you what Dr. Chase's Nerve Food did for him when in such a condition.

Mr. J. Law, 247 Hunter Street, Peterborough, Ont., who is employed with the Peter Hamilton Co., states:

"For a long time I was troubled with severe splitting headaches, and suffered a great deal with pains in the region of my heart, caused no doubt by indigestion. I procured a box of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food and began this treatment. Since using this preparation for some time, I can say that I feel quite different and my health is very much improved. My digestion is good, and the headaches and pains about my heart have not troubled me at all of late. I can sincerely recommend Dr. Chase's Nerve Food as a thorough cure for nervous dyspepsia and its accompanying symptoms."

You can rely on Dr. Chase's Nerve Food to bring you safely out of trouble when the nerves become exhausted, because it supplies in condensed and easily assimilated form the ingredients which nature requires to build up new nerve cells.

In severe cases treatment must be regular and persistent but you will soon notice signs of improvement which will give you encouragement. Why not get started on the road to health today? Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, 50 cts. a box, all dealers or Edmandson, Bates & Co., Toronto.

"Any article will be removed from the window" was the notice prominently displayed in an outfitter's shop. Attracted by it a supercilious person entered the shop and asked to be allowed to inspect a particularly vivid tie in the front row. The salesman having disarranged the window and brought out the desired object, the supercilious person remarked, "Rather loud, isn't it?"

"Well, somewhat striking," agreed the shopman.

"I thought so," replied the visitor, as he turned to leave the shop. "It offends my taste. You needn't put it back. Good-day!"

National Drug and Chemical Company of Canada, Limited, Montreal.

Let us buy a 50-cent bottle of Psychine (pronounced Si-keen) from your druggist and give it to you (free) to prove its great value.

Psychine is the greatest vitality builder of the age.

For thirty years Psychine has been curing almost every disease that is due to run-down vitality.

Hundreds of thousands have used Psychine with wonderful beneficial results.

We have received thousands of unsolicited testimonials from people whom Psychine has cured, of in many cases, hopeless ailments.

There are still thousands of people suffering from disease, however, whom Psychine can benefit.

There are still thousands who are trying to cure themselves by wrong methods, who are using dangerous and harmful medicines.

There are still thousands who are gradually losing their vitality—from whose body the necessary resisting power to disease is slowly but surely slipping away.

There are still those who soon will hear the dread "call in the night" if they do not take prompt action.

To these we have the above message, viz.:

"Let us buy a 50-cent bottle of Psychine from your druggist and give it to you, free, to prove its great value."

That 50-cent bottle of Psychine will tell you more powerfully than mere words can how tremendously beneficial Psychine will be for you.

It will give you an unmistakable indication of its wonderful power to renew the bodily vitality, to strengthen the phagocytes (the white corpuscles), the policemen or scavengers of the body.

The Surgical Department of the Japanese Army, in the Japo-Russian war, first drew the attention of the scientific world to the function of the white corpuscles of the blood or phagocytes.

Foreign medical men were astounded to see Japanese soldiers with wounds that had not been cleansed or dressed for days, that were apparently dirty, ill-kept, and altogether unsanitary.

Yet these dirty wounds healed marvellously; no army the world had ever known had such a wonderful record for the recovery of their wounded as the Japanese army.

And all because the Japanese knew how to let the white corpuscles cure.

There are two kinds of corpuscles in your blood, you know, red and white.

The red carry nutrition, the white are the policemen or scavengers of the body.

Whenever a disease germ enters the body, these white corpuscles attack and literally eat it.

A wound that attracts disease germs from the air is cleansed and healed by billions of phagocytes, or white corpuscles, devouring these unwelcome disease germs.

Any disease can be cured by these white corpuscles if they be in sufficient number or strong enough to attack and devour the germs that cause the disease.

If they are not in sufficient numbers or strength, then the disease germs eat them and disease claims the body.

That's the cause of every disease to which humanity is heir.

For centuries the cure of disease has been by means of herbs—nature's remedies.

It is only within recent times that we have come to know how these herbs act.

Now scientists tell us they increase the strength and numbers of the white corpuscles or phagocytes.

In Psychine we have some of the most healing and beneficial herbs in the world, herbs that increase and strengthen the white corpuscles.

From Arabia comes one herb, from South America another, China and Japan produce a third, while the jungle of India yields a fourth.

All these herbs are recognized by the medical profession as being the most beneficial to health that they know.

That's why Psychine, in the third of a century it has been made, has cured hundreds of thousands of people who suffered from the following diseases:

La Grippe
Bronchitis
Hemorrhages
Sore Throat
Anemia
Female Weakness
Indigestion
Poor Appetite
Chills and Fevers
Stomach-aches and
Nervous Trouble
After-effects of Flu, Pneumonia and La Grippe.

That's why we believe it will be beneficial to you.

Now we don't ask you to take our word for the tremendously beneficial effect of Psychine. Fill out the coupon below, mail it to us, and we'll give you an order on your druggist (for which we pay him the regular retail price) for a 50-cent bottle of Psychine to be given you free of cost.

We will undoubtedly buy and distribute in this manner, hundreds of thousands of these 50-cent bottles of Psychine.

And we do that to show our entire confidence in this wonderful preparation.

A confidence that has been based on our 30 years' experience with this splendid preparation with a full knowledge of the hundreds of thousands of cures it has made.

High Grade Job Work done with neatness and dispatch.

Juvenile Offenders

The child offender has until the last few years been a source of perplexity to Police Courts. The old idea of punishment an eye for an eye and a tooth for a tooth, was constantly held before culprit and judge. The child was discharged or committed. The result in either case was the development of a precociousness in the child to evade the results of wrong doing, and a recognition on the part of those who were wholly interested in the welfare of children, of the inadequacy of such a system to inculcate the principles of reparation and correction.

The Probation System is an outgrowth of this need. At the present time the Judge treats the child much as a school teacher, a pupil who has made an error in arithmetical calculation and is required to work out his problem again under direction. The Judge has before him a report on the home conditions surrounding the child and contributing to his becoming a delinquent. The child is shown why he must make reparation. He is given to understand that there is a higher principle at work than what he probably considers a species of retaliation.

He is not sent back alone to his old conditions, as formerly, but is placed under the supervision of a probation officer, a clear headed and sound hearted individual who volunteers to give the boy a friendly hand, to take an interest in his work, his companions, his amusements. The probation officer is willing to advise the boy when he stands in need of it, to warn him of the consequences of persistent delinquency and to see that he is deprived of privileges or otherwise punished according to his offence.

In nearly every case where children have come under influence of probation, they have responded immediately, and according to the reports of probation officers throughout the province, have all become in many instances more than had been expected.

The superintendent of Neglected children, Edmonton calls for volunteers from every city and town in the province to act in the capacity of "Big Brothers" to the mischievous children whose misdirected energy, if not directed by a firm friendly hand, will lead them into the ranks of confirmed criminals.

Ninety-five per cent of our child delinquents need only such directions to become honest, industrious and in every way desirable citizens.

Foster's Weather Report

Last bulletin gave forecasts of disturbance to cross continent 6 to 10, warm wave 5 to 9, cool wave 8 to 12. In a general way the best of crop weather will prevail during this disturbance. West of Montgomery, Cincinnati and east of Lake Superior conditions will be favorable to all farm work, while east of that line they will be unfavorable.

Next disturbance will reach Pacific coast about 11, cross Pacific slope by close of 12, great central valleys 13 to 15, eastern sections 16. Warm wave will cross Pacific slope about 11, great central valleys 13, eastern sections 15. Cool wave will cross Pacific slope about 14, great central valleys 16, eastern sections 18.

General average of weather during the week centring on 14 will be usually warm and stormy. That week will begin cooler than usual, then very warm about 14 and then cooler than usual about 17. These conditions are estimated for Meridian 90. They will occur earlier west of that line and later east of it. Not much rain till after 14, except in small sections near where the severe storms will occur. Weather most severe in eastern sections.

Fourth disturbances of October will reach Pacific coast about 17th cross Pacific coast by close of 18, great central valleys 19 and 21, eastern sections 22. Warm wave will cross Pacific slope about 17, great central valleys 19, eastern sections 21. Cool wave will cross Pacific slope about 20, great central valleys 22, Eastern sections 24.

This will be another fierce disturbance, but while the previous storm will be most severe in eastern sections, this one will begin as a radical storm on the Pacific coast and will lose force as it approaches eastern sections. With this disturbance rainfall will largely increase and with the close of it temperature will begin a long rapid go-down, ending in cold weather during the end of the month.

I advise farmers to prepare for a very cold month during November. Feeding of live stock will necessarily begin early and as a consequence much more feed will be required for live stock than usual for the month. The crops are not as large as has been reported by interested speculators and before net may Chicago markets reports placing wheat at 1.25 corn 65 and oats at 45.

Early in November frost will check the growth of cotton, and that month will bring bad weather in the cotton belt. Planters will fail by it if they fail to pick all the cotton they possible can before the first of November.

The Man From Brodney's

By GEORGE BARR
M'GUTCHEON

Copyright, 1908, by Dodd, Mead & Co.

"Excellency," came from the lips of Selim at the lower end of the chamber, breaking in sharply upon their little world, "there is no time to be lost. Time to be lost! And he had held her in his arms! Time to be lost! All the rest of time was to be lost! They may return at any moment."

Chase pulled himself together. He looked into her eyes for a moment, finding nothing there but a command to go. She stood straight and unyielding on the very spot which had seen her trembling with emotion but a moment before.

"Coming, Selim," he said, and moved away from her side as Neenah came toward them from the opposite wall. Geneva did not move. She stood quite still and numb, watching his tall figure crossing the stone floor. Ah, what a man he was! The little Persian wife of Selim, after waiting for a full minute, gently touched the arm of the princess. Geneva started and looked down into the dark, accusing, smiling eyes. She flushed deeply and hated herself.

"Shall we go back?" she asked nervously. "I—I have seen enough. Come, Neenah. Lead me back to"—

"Most glorious excellency," said Neenah, shaking her pretty head, "we are to wait here. The sahib and Selim will join us soon."

"Where are they going?" demanded the princess, a feeling of awe coming over her. "I don't want to be left here alone." Chase and Selim had opened a low, heavy iron door at the lower end and were peering into the darkness beyond.

"Selim will explain. He has learned much. It is the secret passage to the coast. Be not afraid."

Geneva looked about her for the first time. They were standing in a long, low room, the walls of which reeked with dampness and gave out a noxious odor. A single electric light provided a faint, almost unnatural light. Selim raised a lighted lantern as he led Chase through the squat door. Behind Geneva were enormous casks, a dozen or more, reaching almost to the ceiling. A number of boxes stood close by, while on the opposite side of the chamber four small iron chests were to be seen, dragged out from recesses in the distant corner. Observing her look of wonder, Neenah vouchsafed a casual explanation.

"It is the wine cellar and the store-room. The iron chests contain the silver and gold plate that came from the great rajah of Murrat in exchange for the five huge rubies which now adorn his crown. The old sahibs stored the chests here many years ago, but few know of their existence. See! They were hidden in the walls over there. Von Blitz has found them."

"Von Blitz?" in amazement.

"He has been here. He has carried away many chests. There were twenty in all."

"And—and he will return for these?" queried the princess in alarm.

"Assuredly, most glorious one. Soon, perhaps. But be not afraid. Selim can close the passage door. He cannot get in. He will be fooled, eh? Why should you be afraid? Have you not with you the most wonderful, the most brave sahib? Would he not give his life for you?" The dark eyes sparkled with understanding—aye, even mischief. Geneva felt that this oriental witch knew everything. For a long time she looked in uncertain mood upon that smiling, wistful face. Then she said softly, moved by an irresistible impulse to confess something, even obscurely.

"Oh, if only I were such as you, Neenah, and could live forever on this dear island!"

"But, most high, there are no princes here. There is no one to whom the most gracious one could be sold. No one who could pay more than a dozen rubies. Women are cheap here, and you would be a woman, not a most beautiful princess."

"I would not care to be a princess, perhaps."

"You love my Sahib Chase?" demanded Neenah abruptly, eagerly.

"Neenah!" gasped Geneva, with a startled look. Neenah looked intently into the unsteady, blue gray eyes and then bent over to kiss the hand of the princess. The latter laughed almost aloud in her confusion. She caught herself up quickly and said with some asperity: "You foolish child. I am to become a prince's wife. How can I love your sahib? What nonsense! I am to marry a prince, and he is not to pay for me in rubies."

"Ah, how wonderful!" cried Neenah, with ravishing candor. "A prince for a husband and the glorious Sahib

Jacob von Blitz stepped into the light.

Chase for a lover all your life! Ah! The exclamation was no less than a sigh of rapturous indorsement.

The princess stared at her first in consternation, then in dismay. Before she could find words to combat this alarming prophecy, so ingeniously presented to her reflections, Selim and Hollingsworth Chase returned to the chamber. She was distressed, even confounded, to find that she was staring at Chase with a strange, abashed curiosity growing in her eyes—a stare that she suddenly was afraid he might observe and appreciate. A wave of revulsion, of shame, spread over her whole being.

With the swiftness of lightning she recalled the things that had been said of more than one grand dame in Europe—aye, of women at her own court. Even a princess she had known who—but for shame! she cried in her heart. It could not be. Despite herself a cruel, distressing shyness came over her as he approached, his eyes glowing with the light she feared, yet craved. Was this man to remain in her life? Was he? Would he come to her and wage the unfair war? Was he honest? Was he even now coveting her as other men had coveted the women she knew and despised? She found herself confronted by the shocking conviction that he knew she could never be his wife. He knew she was to wed another, and yet—It was unbelievable.

She met his eager advance with a quick, shrill laugh of defiance and noted the surprise in his eyes. Dim as the light was, she could have sworn that the look in those eyes was honest. Ah, that silly Neenah! The reaction was as sudden as the revolt had been. Her smile grew warm and shy. "Von Blitz has been here," he was saying half diffidently, still searching deep in her eyes. "He's played hob. And he's likely to return at any minute."

"Then let us go quickly. I have no desire to meet the objectionable Mr. Von Blitz. Isn't it dreadfully dangerous here, Mr. Chase?"

"Mr. Chase?" he said, with his winning smile. "Now?"

"Yes, now and always Mr. Chase," she said steadily. "You know that it cannot be otherwise. I can't always be a fool."

His face turned a deep red; his lips parted for retort to this truculent estimate, but he controlled himself.

"Yes, it is dangerous here," he said quietly, answering her question. "As soon as Selim bars that door upon the inside we'll go. I was a fool to bring you here."

"How could you know what the dangers would be?" she asked.

"I'll confess I didn't expect Von Blitz," he said dryly.

"But you did expect"—she began, with a start, biting her lips.

"There's a vast difference between expectation and hope, princess." Neenah had joined Selim at the door when the men re-entered the chamber. Now she was approaching with her husband.

"May Allah bless you and profit for himself, excellency," said the good Selim. Neenah plainly had advanced her auspicious to the brown body servant. Geneva blushed, and then her eyes blazed. She gave the girl a scornful look. Neenah smiled happily, unreservedly, in return.

"Allah help us, you should say, if Von Blitz returns," interrupted Chase hastily. "Is the door barred?"

"No, excellency. The bars—have sprung. I cannot drop them in place. As you know, the lock has been blown away. The charge sprung the bolts. We must go at once."

GIVEN UP BY HIS PHYSICIAN

"FRUIT-A-TIVES," THE FAMOUS FRUIT MEDICINE, SAVED HIS LIFE.

JAMES DINGWALL, Esq.
Williamstown, Ont., July 27th, 1908.
"I suffered all my life from Chronic Constipation and no doctor, or remedy, I ever tried helped me. 'Fruit-a-tives' promptly cured me. Also, last spring I had a bad attack of BLADDER and KIDNEY TROUBLE and the doctor gave me up but 'Fruit-a-tives' saved my life. I am now over eighty years of age and I strongly recommend 'Fruit-a-tives' for Constipation and Kidney Trouble."

"Then there is no way to keep them out of the chateau?" cried Geneva anxiously.

"They can go no farther than this room," explained Selim. "We lock the double iron doors from the other side—the door through which you came, most glorious excellency—and they cannot enter the cellars above. This is the chamber which opens into the underground passage to the coast. The passage was made for escape from the chateau in case of trouble and was known to but few. My father was the servant of Sahib Wyckholme, and I used to live in the chateau."

"Once there was a boat, a launch, which lay hidden below the cliffs on the north coast. The passage led to this boat. It was always ready to put out to sea. But one night it was destroyed by the great rocks which fell from the cliffs in an earthquake. When I came here I at once thought of the passage. You will see that the doors into the cellar cannot be opened from this chamber. The locks and bolts are on the other side. I knew where the keys were hidden. It was easy to unlock the doors and come into this room. I found that some one had been here before me. The door to the passage had been forced open from without, cracked by dynamite. Many of the treasure boxes have been removed. Von Blitz was here not an hour ago. He wears boots. I saw the footprints among the naked ones in the passage. They will come back for the other chests. Then they will blow up the passageway with powder, and escape from the chateau through it. It will be cut off. I have found the keys of powder in the passage and have destroyed the fuse. It will be of no avail, sahib. They will blow it up at the other end, which will be just the same."

"There's no time to be lost," cried Chase. "We must bring enough men down here to capture them when they return—shoot 'em if necessary. Come on! We can surprise them if we hurry!"

They were starting across the chamber toward the door when a gruff, sepulchral oath came rolling up to the chamber through the secret passage. Quick as a flash Selim, who realized that they could not reach and open the door leading to the stairs, turned in among the huge wine casks, first blinding his lantern. He whispered for the others to follow. In a moment they were squeezing themselves through the narrow spaces between the dark, strong smelling casks, back into a darkness so opaque that it seemed lifeless.

"They won't suspect that we are here," whispered Selim as the door to the passage creaked. "Keep quiet! Don't breathe!"

The single electric light was still burning as Selim had found it when he first came. The door swung open slowly, heavily, and Jacob von Blitz, mud covered, reeking with perspiration and panting savagely, stepped into the light. Behind him came a man with a lantern and behind him the others.

They were white men, all. Von Blitz turned suddenly and cursed the man with the lantern. The fellow was ready to drop with exhaustion. Evidently it had been no easy task to remove the chests.

Snails Weigh a Pound.
A plague of snails on the Ceylon coast is assuming serious proportions. Millions of molluscs are found, and they have begun feeding on the young coconut trees. As the Kalutara district is the premier rubber belt, it is feared the snails may attack the young rubber trees. Some of the snails of the variety known as achatina reticulata, which are working such havoc at Kalutara, weigh one pound each.

Lettuce Cream For Summer Use.
A good cream for healing itched and irritated skin: Four ounces almond oil, one ounce spermaceti, one ounce white wax and two ounces lettuce juice. The lettuce must be scalded with boiling water and allowed to stand a few minutes. Pour off the water and pound the lettuce to a paste in an earthen bowl or mortar, then strain through cheesecloth. Melt the first ingredients in a double boiler over a slow fire. Do not let them come to a boil. Just melt them, then drop by drop add the lettuce juice, constantly beating the cream with a fork until all the juice is added and the cream perfectly smooth and cold.

A Boa of Snakes.

Mr. A. W. Gilbey writes to The Field: "My keeper, walking round the hedgerows lately, saw a hen pheasant sitting on her nest with two common snakes round her neck. He rattled his stick, when both the snakes scuttled off, and he killed them. The pheasant sat quite unconcerned, and never left the nest. The keeper thinks they may have got there for warmth. I have never heard of a similar case."

He Feared Blood Poison.

But Zam-Buk Saved His Thumb!

Once again a case is reported in which the popular balm Zam-Buk has saved a worker from the terrible effects of blood-poisoning. Mr. Alfred Hy. Orth, of Shipley, Ont., says: "While at work I had the misfortune to run a rusty nail under my thumb nail, to the depth of about one and a half inches. The pain was terrible and what I feared was that the nail, being so dirty and rusty, would set up festering and blood-poison. I knew from previous experience how good Zam-Buk was, so I cleaned the thumb, melted a little Zam-Buk, and ran it into the wound. The result was wonderful! It soothed the pain and the thumb actually did not swell. Zam-Buk kept away all inflammation. I was able to go on with my work all the time, and in a few days the thumb was as good as ever. A balm which can do this should be in every working man's home."

Zam-Buk is the finest form of "insurance" for all workers. Its antiseptic power is so great that no disease germ can live in it; and if immediately applied to the sore or injury, or diseased patch, all danger of blood-poisoning is averted.

Being composed of pure vegetable essences, Zam-Buk is an ideal balm for babies and young children, and mothers will find it far superior to the ordinary salves, some of which contain harmful mineral poisons, rancid animal fats, etc.

Zam-Buk is a sure cure for ulcers, abscesses, eczema, ringworm, blood-poison, scalp sores, chapped hands, cold sores, inflamed patches, bad leg, varicose veins and ulcers, piles, cuts, burns, bruises, and all skin diseases and injuries. Sold by all druggists and storekeepers at 50c. a box, 3 for $1.25. Post free from Zam-Buk Co., Toronto, for price. Avoid harmful imitations and substitutes.

DEAFNESS CANNOT BE CURED

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

Postoffice Money Boxes.

The British postoffice is a wonderful institution, and when we are inclined to grumble we should remember that fifteen millions of half-penny packets and letters are conveyed daily; that 250,000 telegrams are sent off every day; and that every twenty-four hours $1,250,000 is transmitted by money orders and postal orders.

And now the Postmaster-General has introduced a fresh innovation. People are to save their money in a box instead of running to the office every time they want to make a deposit. The saver is to have the box, and the postoffice will keep the key; and this, it is thought, will more closely connect the postoffice with the lives of the people. Not that a link of affection does not already exist. Indeed, quite recently a young mother walked into a postoffice, and asked for the registration counter, in order that she might register the birth of her infant.

WEST IS VERY LOYAL

BRITISH SENTIMENT STRONG IN THE WEST

Dr. George Bryce, Addressing the Royal Society, Says Foreign Born Residents are Being Assimilated—Can Rely on Integrity of Canadian People to Perpetuate Lasting Canadian Sentiment.

Ottawa.—The Royal Society of Canada met in the Normal school, under the presidency of Dr. George Bryce, of Winnipeg.

Dr. Bryce, president, in his opening remarks, stated that it had been hoped to have Ambassador James Bryce, from Washington, to deliver a lecture, but that Sir James had been unable to come. He also explained what the Royal society had done in getting the government to establish an ethnological department of the geological survey, for which purpose two grants had been secured. The government had also promised that space would be given in the new museum for the storage of the valuable library of the society.

The evening fixture was the presidential address by Rev. Dr. George Bryce. As a preliminary, Dr. J. W. Robertson, chairman of the royal commission on technical education and other members of the commission in the city were introduced, and Dr. Robertson in a short address explained to the members of the Royal society the objects which are being aimed at by the commission. In a word, he said it was to gather information in which it will make Canadians better fitted for their jobs. Already the evidence of over 688 people had been taken and when the work was concluded the members hoped that they would have accomplished something which would make Canada a better country in which to live.

The address by Dr. Bryce, on "The Canadianization of western Canada," was marked with a high note of optimism. It was largely historical, the speaker tracing the story of the western country from the time it was taken over from the Hudson's Bay company to the present time. British sentiment, he said, had always been strong in the west. It was cultivated by the Hudson's Bay company in the beginning, and had remained strong ever since. In Winnipeg there was more real British sentiment than in the good city of Toronto. Dr. Bryce could not see that it was liable to be lessened by the large influx of foreign people. Eastern Canada in its early days, he said, had succeeded in assimilating a large number of foreign born. Western Canada could be depended upon to do the same.

Speaking more particularly of the so called American invasion, Dr. Bryce said that not more than twenty per cent. came from pure American stock. Eighty per cent. were Canadians who were returning from the United States and immediate descendants of people of European birth. The new arrivals prefer Canada to the United States for a variety of reasons. They prefer Canadian laws, and the way in which they are administered. They consider that Canadian schools are better than those of the United States, that there is better control of railways and that as a consequence of these conditions, are better for farmers. Practically all are willing to become British subjects. In view of these things Dr. Bryce said Canadians could rely on their school laws and institutions and the integrity of the Canadian people to give to all foreigners, who are within their boundaries, in the course of time a strong and lasting Canadian sentiment.

RUSSIAN FUGITIVE IN WINNIPEG

One of the Fifty-five Indicted Members of the Duma Escaped to Canada

Winnipeg, Man.—Longinus Theodor Geras, a fugitive member of the Russian duma, has arrived here from Chicago to give evidence on behalf of Saava Fedorenko, whose extradition is sought by the Russian government. Geras was one of the fifty-five members of the duma who were indicted, and one of the nine who escaped. He was pursued across the country for seven months, but finally made his way out with the assistance of forged passports. The interest in the Fedorenko case is increasing on account of the prominent refugees who are fighting to have the prisoner released.

INDIANS OBJECT

They Hold Pow-Wow and Resolve to Keep Fort George Townsite

Victoria, B. C.—Semi-official advices from Fort George state that a great pow-wow of the Indians has just been held there, as a result of which a decision was reached not on any account to consent to the surrender of the reservation at the junction of the Fraser and the Nechaco rivers which is desired for a Grand Trunk Pacific townsite and divisional purposes. Centuries of possession and the fact that countless ancestors are buried there chiefly operated toward bringing the Indians to this decision. The government has no power to annul the decision.

Important Meeting of Missionaries Winnipeg, Man.—Missionaries for Western Presbyterian fields assembled here recently, and received their allotments for the season, with instructions and suggestions from prominent church workers.

INDIANS PREDICT COLD WINTER

Say the Animals in the Hills are Preparing for a Heavy Snowfall

Fort George.—The Indians along the Kootenay river flats near Kootenay Landing and in the Creston and Boundary districts are predicting that the coming winter will be a very cold one. The old-timers who came down from the hills tell the same story.

They all point to the facts that the fur-bearing animals are this fall growing heavier and longer coats than customary; that the muskrats are building their houses larger and higher than is usual in mild winters; the bears are starting to select dens in the most protected places they can find, and that the pretty little chipmunks and gophers are also giving signs that they are preparing for a cold winter.

Both the men who have spent many years of their life in the hills and the Indians are casually close observers of the habits of animals and such deep believers in the truth of the instinct, or whatever it may be, that guides them in their continual fight against nature, that it will be interesting to await the winter and see if these prognostications become true. Said a prospector who had recently returned from the Lardeau country, "The wild animals certainly seem to be preparing for a cold winter and much snow."

POLICE ATTACK REPORTERS

Newspaper Men Complain About the Methods of the German Police

Berlin, Germany.—American Ambassador Hill, acting on instructions of the state department at Washington, called at the foreign office recently, and requested an inquiry into the proper official redress for the wanton assault made by the police upon Frederick W. Wile, the correspondent of the New York Times, during the coal strikers' rioting recently.

In company with the correspondents of Reuters' Telegraph company, the New York World and the New York Sun, Mr. Wile, engaged in his duties, was watching the police and rioters from a motor car, when the party was set upon by the police and painfully injured.

R. Seymour, the British charge d'affaires, has received, simultaneously, a protest from the three other newspaper men, who are British subjects. He now awaits instructions from London.

EDMONTON TO THE GREAT LAKES

The G. T. P. Will Take Over the Road East of Winnipeg From Government and Run the Road

Winnipeg.—E. J. Chamberlain, general manager of the Grand Trunk Pacific, who is at Superior Junction, states that the company will take over the section between here and Lake Superior Junction from the government and will run wheat trains over it.

This will give the Grand Trunk Pacific a grain route between Edmonton and the Great Lakes, over the company's tracks with the exception of a few miles in the vicinity of Winnipeg, where the tracks of the Canadian Northern will be used owing to the non-completion of the bridges across the Red river here.

LEAVES CHARITIES MUCH

Estate of Late Millionaire Grain Operator Estimated at $5,000,000

Chicago.—George W. Patten, the millionaire grain operator who died recently of tuberculosis at the home of his brother, James A. Patten, in Evanston, left a fortune estimated at $5,000,000, the greater part of which, it is said, will be left to public charities, including a large donation for the furtherance of the anti-tuberculosis campaign.

Two weeks ago the announcement was made that Mr. Patten had created a fund of $500,000 known as the "Agnes and Louisa Patten fund," for the endowment of the Evanston Hospital Association, an institution in which the two brothers took a great interest.

KING IS ARTILLERYMAN

Becomes An Honorary Member of the Ancient Boston Company

Boston, Mass.—King George V., of England, became an honorary member of the Ancient and Honorable Artillery Company of Boston, and within a few days a committee of three will proceed to notify him of his new dignity. The suggestion that the present King be invited to take the place of his late father on the rolls of the company was received with the greatest enthusiasm.

Canada's Customs Show Big Increase

Ottawa.—The first six months of the fiscal year, which has just ended, shows an increase of $36,476.13 in the customs over the same period last year. The figures being: 1910-11, $35,550,544.09; 1906-10, $33,781,068.86. The receipts for the month amounted to $6,267,939.61 as against $5,537,548.04, an increase of $1,030,481.77. The indications are that the customs revenue of the Dominion will reach $73,000,000 and may attain $75,000,000.

Capt. Pellatt is Recovering

London.—King George has received wires regarding the condition of the Queen's Own officers. Lady Pellatt says that her son, Capt. Pellatt, is progressing very favorably.

SAFE AND EASY ROUTE

HUDSON BAY PROJECT HAS MANY SUPPORTERS

Western Shore of Hudson Bay is the Same Distance from Europe as Montreal, and One Thousand Miles Nearer Western Grain Fields—Navigation of Hudson Bay said to be Safe as the St. Lawrence.

Toronto.—The conditions and problems of the Hudson bay were the subject of an address before the Empire club by Mr. L. S. Amery, formerly colonial editor of The London Times, who accompanied Earl Grey on his trip through the North. Mr. Amery said in part:—

"Owing to the shape of the globe, the distance to the western shore of Hudson Bay from Europe is the same as to Montreal, about 3,000 miles. In addition the shore is approximately 1,000 miles nearer the grain fields of the West.

"I am persuaded the grain fields of the West will extend from 150 to 250 miles north of the present northern belt. The difficulty in the way of building a railway to the bay is practically nil. The only practicable harbor is Fort Churchill, and although but three or four ships can now find a place within it, there is plenty of room for extension of the space. If a route could be charted into Nelson the harbor would offer superior facilities and would supply a better country about it.

"For ordinary traffic Hudson straits are not open till the middle of July, and remain open until the middle of November. Navigation of Hudson Bay itself is just as safe as navigation of the St. Lawrence.

"Given proper Marconi stations and light houses, shipping could have practically four months open season to and from the bay, allowing a vessel to make three complete trips from England."

HAVE TAPPED MAIN SUPPLY

Company Find Petroleum Gas and Expect to Soon Reach the Oil Zone

Edmonton.—A flow of petroleum gas, at a depth of 360 feet, and burning to a height of 30 feet, was struck recently at Morinville, 22 miles north of Edmonton, at borings of the California-Alberta Oil company. Boring is still being continued. A flow was struck a week ago at 300 feet, and the next morning another flow, at 360 feet, which burst through the water in the boring, and burned to a height of over 30 feet, half way up the derrick. This is the first strike that has been made in two years and looks hopeful. The company have spent $20,000 on the property in boring operations. The oil experts say that the gas struck is petroleum gas, and have great hopes of striking oil.

POTATO FAMINE THREATENS

The Price of Potatoes is Very High Now and Not Likely to be Any Lower

Winnipeg.—A potato famine is already in sight in Winnipeg and there is a general shortage of other vegetables. Market gardeners have not had such poor returns in 15 years. Potatoes are now quoted at 90 cents per bushel, and the price is not likely to be any lower retail. This is the season when provident householders fill up their cellars with roots for winter, but little inducement is offered this fall at 75 cents per bushel in 10 bushel lots is the utmost concession the farmers will make. Heavy importations from the east will be necessary.

NO LIBERTY IN KOREA

Empire Has Power to Make Edicts, But Japan Can Cancel Them

Tokio, Japan.—The regulations adopted for the government of Korea were gazetted recently. They provide for a governor-general, invested with authority to make ordinances subject to the approval of the Emperor of Japan. A premier and privy council to administer affairs will be appointed.

The governor-general will be Lieutenant-General Viscount Torauchi, heretofore the resident-general of Korea, and Deputy Resident-General Isharu Yamagata will be the president of the privy council.

To Bring British Families to the West

Winnipeg, Man.—Winnipeg business men have subscribed a guarantee fund of $12,500 in order to guarantee the scheme of the Winnipeg Development and Industrial Bureau to assist wives and families in Great Britain of immigrants now settled in Winnipeg to rejoin their husbands.

Commissioner Roland states that eastern and western cities are anxious to take up the idea, and every mail brings inquiries for the details.

Teachers Will Emigrate to Canada

London.—The board of education has arranged to co-operate with the educational authorities of Western Canada with a view to sending in advance a list of teachers intending to emigrate to the Dominion.

Shopping by Postal System

London.—Herbert Burbridge, manager of Harrod's Stores, says he intends to take Harrod's stores as a model for the Hudson Bay shops. He also foresees a great future in Canada for shopping on the postal system.

10,000,000 ACRES OF GOOD LAND

Such is the Report of the Exploration Division of the Interior Department

Regina, Sask.—That of the twenty-one million acres explored in the northern part of Saskatchewan and Alberta that ten million acres are available, is the gist of a report which has been issued by the Northwest exploration division of the department of the interior, covering its work for last year.

The district covered in the report is that part of Saskatchewan and Alberta north of the surveyed area and bounded by Green Lake, Beaver river and the connecting waters to Portage La Loche, thence down the Clearwater to the Athabasca and up the latter to the north limit of the surveyed area.

The exploration was worked by a party of several men, members of the firm of J. H. Crean, who believed that ten millions out of the twenty-one is a conservative estimate of the land available for settlement in its present state.

The greater portion of the remaining area would repay expenditures for drainage. Two million acres are covered with water. The present conditions prevailing, it is stated, offer no obstacle to farming, and experiments in agriculture attempted there have always been satisfactory.

"The difficulties of this section to reach the beautiful and fertile valley of Clearwater will no longer exist when the railway to McMurray, which is now proposed to be built, is completed," is says in conclusion.

OPENING OF PARLIAMENT

Date of Opening of Session Not Yet Considered, But Will Probably be Not Later Than Nov. 7.

Ottawa.—The date of the opening of the parliamentary session has not yet been considered by the cabinet council, but there is little disposition in the best informed circles to place any credence in the report that the house will not meet till January.

The estimates are now being prepared by the various departments, and these can all be dealt with by the council in the course of a month.

While there are a variety of important matters to be dealt with this session, the legislation to be introduced will not involve much lengthy consideration, as did the insurance and anti-gambling bills of last session, when interests from the Atlantic to the Pacific were heard. The bill which will involve most consideration will be the act to amend the banking act. Another reason why the house should meet in November is that it must rise early in the summer in order that the premier may attend the coronation of King George. The decoration of the senate chamber may cause a short delay, but the house is almost certain to meet not later than Nov. 7.

ARE WATCHING CANADA'S ACT

Minister of Labor is Receiving Many Inquiries Regarding the Industrial Disputes Law

London.—Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King, minister of labor for Canada, interviewed at Paris, said that during his stay on the Continent he found that the different countries of Europe are following with close attention Canada's Industrial Disputes Investigation Act. Mr. King has received many inquiries from public men re the working of the act, and measures drafted along similar lines will be introduced in France and Sweden. Mr. King added that the legislation in Canada to curb trusts has also created considerable interest, one or two ministers having expressed the intention of sending special investigators to Canada to report to their governments on the working of the Canadian law.

WILL AMEND CONSTITUTION

Commonwealth to Have Complete Legislative Control of its Own Domestic Affairs

Melbourne, Australia.—In federal parliament recently Attorney-General Hughes introduced a bill amending the constitution, giving the Commonwealth complete legislative control of trade, commerce, corporation and industrial matters, including employment, wages and settlement of disputes, and giving it power to deal with combinations and monopolies. The bill was read a first time and when passed, will be referendomed.

MOST FRUIT IS GOOD

But There Are Cases Where the Complaints of Purchasers Are Well Founded

Ottawa, Ont.—A. McGill, chief analyst of the inland revenue department, reports upon 436 samples of packaged fruit purchased throughout the Dominion in April and May last. The results, he says, show that most of the packaged fruit offered in Canada is of excellent quality, but cases occur where, through carelessness or other cause, complaints on the part of the consumers are well founded. Twelve samples were condemned on account of decay, moldiness or worminess.

Try to Undermine Monroe Doctrine

Wellington, N.Z.—Dr. Bell states that the idea has taken a firm hold of the United States that Germany is building Dreadnoughts with a view of making the Monroe doctrine ineffectual. Germany's objective being Brazil and having no designs on British dominions.

TO DEFINE BOUNDARY

INTERNATIONAL FIELD SURVEY IS WELL UNDER WAY

Work on Boundary Line Between Alaska and Canada is Nearing a Finish—Many Difficulties Encountered by Survey Parties—Contemplate Use of Airships to Cover Inaccessible Regions.

Dawson.—A review of the surveying, blazing and monumenting of the boundary line between Alaska and Canada is given by one of the members of a detachment of the survey corps, which has just arrived here on its way to Vancouver, after having completed the field work for the season of 1910. He says:—

"The Canada-Alaskan boundary survey work, which has been on for years past, is slowly drawing to a close. Already the international line between British Columbia and the Alaskan side from Portland canal to Mount St. Elias is practically determined. The boundary between Yukon territory and Alaska from St. Elias north, follows the one hundred and forty-first meridian to the Arctic ocean, and traverses for the greater part of its 600 miles a virgin country still unsettled and in some parts unapproachable. Thus the unbroken wilderness of snow and ice throughout the Mount St. Elias ranges has never yet been crossed by man, and for its survey the use of an airship is contemplated.

The international line north of the mountains and up to the Porcupine river has been practically finished northward to the Arctic ocean rethis summer, and only the surveying mains to be done."

OBSERVE SABBATH IN CANADA

Canon Welch, Vicar of Wakefield, Very Favorably Impressed with Morality of Dominion

Cambridge, Eng.—At the church congress here, Canon Welch, the vicar of Wakefield, said conditions in Canada regarding its general morality were in some respects much better than in England. The Sabbath was more generally observed and a larger proportion of the population, especially the men, attended public worship. This satisfactory condition of affairs was due to the work of various religious bodies. The Methodists were the largest and the Presbyterians second in numbers and perhaps equal in influence. In the work of the Lord's Day Alliance many Anglicans joined in heartily with other denominations and most important of all was the Laymen's Missionary Movement which should be understood to be not undenominational but interdenominational.

MAY CHANGE ROUTE

G. T. P. Will Likely Traverse Lillooet District in British Columbia

Vancouver, B.C.—It is almost a certainty that the proposed branch of the Grand Trunk Pacific between Fort George and Vancouver will traverse the Lillooet district and strike the Canadian Pacific at or near Agassiz station. The trial lines run this season from Lillooet on the Fraser to Lytton, where the river is joined by the South Thompson river, are not considered satisfactory owing to the heavy rock work and the enormous cost involved in construction.

An engineering party is now working north from Agassiz. Its objective is Lillooet. It is aimed as a route where very low grades can be secured all the way from Lillooet on the Fraser to Agassiz, whence the line will parallel the Canadian Pacific into Vancouver.

ARMORY FOR EDMONTON

Will Be Built as Soon as a Suitable Site Can be Provided

Edmonton, Alta.—Col. E. B. Edwards, commanding the 101st Edmonton Fusiliers, has received an official communication from the minister of militia stating that as soon as a suitable site is provided, the government will immediately erect an armory here to cost not less than $100,000. As a result the negotiations with the city to obtain a site are now taking an active turn.

The building will be modelled on the armory at Peterboro, Ont. It will be of brick with stone trimmings and will be 200 feet wide and 300 feet long. It will be large enough to provide for a regiment of cavalry, battery of artillery, army service corps and a corps of guides.

Calgary.—J. A. MacCullough, vice-president and general manager, and J. W. Vermilyea, secretary-treasurer, of the Three Hills Coal and Development Co., Limited, returned recently from the company's mines at Three Hills. The G. T. P. railway has about completed its grades at Three Hills and a spur track is being built into the mines. A new subdivision is being surveyed close to the railway and will be put on the market next month.

THE PRAIRIE CHICKENS HUNT

Prairie chickens are fairly plentiful this year and, whilst the season is only open for this month sportsmen may congratulate themselves on the excellent shooting. Several parties both large and small went out from Trochu on the first and although we did not hear of any bags even approaching a record the average bag was very fair.

Perhaps the thing which we have to regret most in the Trochu district is the absence of good shooting dogs. As a matter of fact there is only one pointer that we know of within a radius of five miles of the village.

But a well-trained dog (it is not necessary to mention that dogs are useless unless they are well trained) is an expensive item and it will be sometime before we have many in this district.

TOWNSITE SURVEYED

The G. T. P. townsite surveyors arrived in Trochu on Tuesday evening October 4th and started surveying the company's townsite on Wednesday morning. The proposed plan of the townsite is now out. The avenues run parallel with the line which cuts across the east half of section 17. It may be mentioned that the avenues are all broad and that the townsite on the whole, is very compact and well laid out.

The exact date on which the lots will be placed on the market is not yet known but it is practically certain that there will not be much further delay. Mr F W Bernard is the official townsite agent for the company.

OBITUARY

LOUIS J STIRTON

We have to record the sad death of Louis J Stirton which took place on the evening of September 29th. Deceased who was only twenty-two years of age arrived in Trochu a short while ago and was engaged as a harness maker in E. Papillaris harness shop. On Sunday afternoon September 25th he had a bad hemorrhage of the lungs and although everything possible was done to assist him in his weakened condition he passed away a few days later.

Mr Stirton of Olds, uncle of the deceased drove out to Trochu as soon as he was acquainted with the condition of his nephew. The funeral took place on Saturday afternoon, Sept 30th, the body being interred in the Trochu cemetery.

INSPECTION OF THE RIFLE CLUB

Major Mackie arrived in Trochu from Calgary on Saturday morning October 2nd, for the purpose of inspecting the Trochu Civilian Rifle Association's range and equipment. Major Mackie, who made a thorough inspection of the range and rifles, and also the scores obtained by the association's members, expressed himself as being very well satisfied with the work the club has done.

Mr and Mrs Hugh Stewart and family spent a few days at Pine Lake this week.

OUR FUTURE

In a very few months we shall be confronted with the problem of making a new town. It is often the first year which decides the future of a town. For that reason it is important that we should start with a good foundation.

A good town must necessarily possess two or three outstanding features. Foremost, it is essential that its stores should afford to the farmers a big variety of goods at a reasonable price. Without good stores no town can thrive, no matter how great the natural resources of the country surrounding it may be.

In the second place a good town must possess a good school and it is also important that it should have a public park and also a market place.

Thirdly, a good town must have a good mayor and a town council.

What we must always bear in mind is that we are only one amongst, possibly, three hundred towns that will come into existence this year. Some of those towns do not possess the same advantages that we possess but many of them possess equal advantages. It is the town which has the best stores and the best body of public men which is going to be in the lead.

RHEUMATIC PAINS

Not Due to Cold, Wet Weather
—The Trouble is Rooted in the Blood.

Many people believe that the twinges and tortures of rheumatism are due to cold, damp, or wet weather, and treat themselves by rubbing with liniments and lotions. This is a serious mistake, and one which allows the disease to progress to such an extent that it is often impossible to get it out of the system. Rheumatism comes from poisonous acid in the blood, and it must be cured through the blood. All the liniments, and rubbing, and so-called electrical treatment in the world will not cure rheumatism. This is a medical truth which every sufferer from this excruciating trouble should know. Rheumatism can only be cured by driving the poisonous acid out of the blood, and enriching and purifying it. There is no medicine will do this so speedily and surely as Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. They actually make the new, rich, red blood, which drives out the poisonous acid, rebuilds the system, and makes the sufferer well and strong. It is because they do this that Dr. Williams' Pink Pills have cured thousands of cases of rheumatism after all other treatment had failed. As proof we give the case of Mrs. F. X. Boisseau, St. Jerome, Que., who says: "Almost two years ago I was a terrible sufferer from rheumatism. The trouble first located in my right leg, rendering all work impossible, and walking excessively difficult. I tried to cure myself by means of all sorts of liniments and lotions, but without avail. The trouble was constantly growing worse, and the pain more and more unbearable. Finally the disease spread to my other leg, and I was all but helpless, and I was completely discouraged, thinking I would be a sufferer for the rest of my life. At this time I read an advertisement in our home paper, of this trouble being cured by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and I decided to try them. I first got four boxes of the Pills and after using them for several weeks I could see that the painful rheumatism was gradually disappearing. I continued taking the Pills, however, until I had used about a dozen boxes, when every symptom of the trouble had disappeared, and I could do my housework without the least trouble. I have no hesitation in recommending Dr. Williams' Pink Pills to every rheumatic sufferer."

Sold by all medicine dealers or by mail at 50 cents a box, six boxes for $2.50, from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

THE SUNDAY SCHOOL

LESSON II.—FOURTH QUARTER,
FOR OCT. 9, 1910

Text of the Lesson, Matt. xxv, 14-30.
Memory Verse, 29—Golden Text,
Matt. xxv, 21—Commentary Prepared by Rev. D. M. Stearns.

This lesson, like the last one, is found only in Matthew, but a little earlier in these last days of His earthly ministry, about the time that He brought salvation to the house of Zaccheus, He spoke a parable because He was nigh to Jerusalem and because they thought that the kingdom of God should immediately appear (Luke xix, 11). These two parables cover the same period of time and teach virtually the same truths; they cover the time of the nobleman's absence in a far country to receive for himself a kingdom and to return, and during his absence the servants are expected to make diligent use of the pounds or talents with which they have been intrusted that they may give an account of their stewardship at his return. "Occupy till I come" is the word to every servant (Luke xix, 14). As both John and Jesus and the twelve and the seventy had all preached that the kingdom was at hand they were all expecting it, not understanding that Messiah being rejected by the nation and the rulers having determined to kill Him, the kingdom must wait till His return and the age of "the mystery of the kingdom" run its course. These parables tell of service in this present age and bring before us another phase of the readiness to meet Him at His coming. The redemption clothing. His righteousness, makes us fit and ready to meet Him at any time (Col. i, 12-14), but we are redeemed in order to serve Him, and for this service there will be rewards, and it is His desire that we should receive a full reward and not be ashamed before Him at His coming (II. John viii; I. John ii, 28; Rev. xxii, 12).

In the one parable each servant receives a pound; in the other each receives talents according to his ability. Every believer without exception receives the Holy Spirit in some measure, but the special gifts of the Spirit are given to every one severally as He will (I. Cor. xii, 4-11, 18). This passage helps in some measure to understand both the pounds and the talents. There is something for every believer to do and bear, and it has long been a comfort to me to know that everything has been appointed for each individual before hand (Eph. ii, 10), and we have only to walk with Him in that which He appoints for us. I am also comforted by remembering that He expects no service for which He has not given the ability (I Pet. iv, 10, 11). It is the greatest folly to consider others and the service they are rendering and aim to do as they are doing, for the Lord appoints "to every man his work" (Mark xiii, 34). And "every one of us shall give account of himself to God" (Rom. xiv, 12). We are here as His witnesses to manifest His life, to show forth His praises, to prove ourselves faithful servants of His manifold graces, to serve the living and true God (Acts i, 8; II Cor. iv, 10), and our position in His kingdom will depend upon our faithfulness here.

In the parable of the pounds the servants testified "Lord, thy pound hath gained ten pounds," or "Lord thy pound hath gained five pounds," and the reward of their faithfulness, not success, was authority over ten cities or five cities, conveying at least a suggestion of our reigning with Him over the earth (Rev. v, 10). In the parable of the talents, the servants say, "I have gained five talents more," or "I have gained two talents." To each of these the commendation was just the same, for each had been equally given them. "Well done, good and faithful servant; thou hast been faithful over few things; I will make thee ruler over many things. Enter thou into the joy of thy Lord" (verses 21, 23). Note again that it is faithfulness, not, success, that is commended. Compare xxiv, 45. There is here also the thought of ruling, but what the joy of the Lord can mean who can tell? We cannot even imagine much about either. It will all be far beyond our utmost thought. It will be His exceeding abundantly above all we can ask or think. Listen to His prayer, "Father, I will that they also whom Thou hast given Me be with Me where I am, that they may behold My glory which Thou hast given Me" (John xvii, 24). And not only behold, but share His glory, for He said (verse 22), "The glory which Thou gavest Me I have given them, that they may be one even as we are one."

Note that it was the pound that gained the pounds, while the other said "I have gained other talents." Both are correct, for while we work it is God working in us. We have both in I Cor. xv, 10, "I labor more abundantly than them all, yet not I, but the grace of God which was with Me." It is evident that the unfaithful servant was a mere professor and knew not the Lord. Imagine a Christian saying to the Lord, "I know that Thou art an Herdman" (2), or, "I feared Thee because Thou art an austere man" (Luke xix, 21). His doom shows that he was never a true servant, for no true child of God can perish (John ii, 16; x, 28). As to the phrase or saying, "From him that hath not shall be taken away even that which he hath" (verse 29), it is explained by Luke vii, 18.

FAMOUS PEOPLE

BY FANNIE M. LOTHROP

HOMER WATSON
Canada's Great Landscape Painter.

Every great landscape artist is both a poet and a painter. The imagination, the intuition, the interpretation, the sympathy, the reverence, the love, kinship and communion with Nature of the poet, filtering through the mind of the artist find their medium of expression in brush and colors. Every great painting is a poem in paint instead of in print.

One feels this strongly in the presence of Homer Watson's paintings, the putting on canvas of a single mood, with detail ever subordinated to the general effect. They are never photographic, but are always strongly individual interpretations. Whether it be a rough sea with the dancing fisher-boats under a dull, rain-filled sky, the white mill catching the high lights with its background of foliage, the lone rider bent over his horse plodding along a rain-washed road, some noble monarch forest tree braving the elements, or his interpretations of any other moods of Nature, one always feels the sentiment, the richness of color, the atmosphere, the glow, the feeling—all seem inseparable parts of a single effect. The dainty daubs of detail characteristic of some painters find no place in Mr. Watson's work; it is ever bold, rugged, broad in treatment, breathing vigor and vitality.

Homer Watson was born in the little village of Doon, on Grand River, Ont., in 1856, and as a boy at school showed his natural instinct for art when he surreptitiously drew on his slate an over-vivid picture of the strong and peculiar features of his teacher, which drew upon him deserved punishment. He seemed to turn naturally to landscape work, and his first large painting "The Pioneer Mill," which appeared at the first exhibition of the Royal Canadian Academy was purchased by the Marquis of Lorne, and now hangs in a place of honor in Windsor Castle.

Mr. Watson has exhibited at the Academy in England, the New Gallery, the New English Art Club, the Glasgow Institute and at International Expositions, and been honored by one-man exhibitions where thirty or more of his paintings were hung together, thus enabling one to study comparatively the range of his work. He makes almost annual trips to England, but loves Canada, her scenes and her people too well to take up permanent residence abroad. It is always dangerous to compare the work of one painter with another as it may carry with it a suggestion of imitation which would be unjust to one whose work is so individual as Mr. Watson's; but the critics in their appreciation of his paintings couple his name with the names of Corot, Constable, Diaz, Rousseau and Courbet—a noble band of masters with whom Canada's painter may feel honored to be classed.
